REFLECTION

In today's gospel, Jesus is tempted three times, after which the devil leaves Him. In a way, the spiritual life is like the physical life, in that we grow tougher through repeated action. After lifting weights repeatedly, our physical strength increases, and we can overcome progressively complicated challenges. It is the same with our spiritual life. An old gospel song says, "Yield not to temptation, for yielding is sin. Each battle will help us to win." Scripture says, "resist the devil and he will flee" (James 4:7). Lenten season is a time to resist the forces of evil, for conversion, for repentance, for renewal, for overcoming globalization of indifference and enter a new chapter where we recognize the difference between oneself and the other, between one lifestyle and another, between oneself and God. I invite you today, dear friends, to utterly abandon the "wisdom of the devil" that sets traps that pull us into sin, and also ponder that reality of "divine foolishness" in the work of salvation that free us from sin. "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the Gospel." This Lenten season let us then listen attentively to Him, resist the devil's voice, repent and truly believe the good news.

~ Fr. Caroli Shao, A.J.

The Observance of Lent

Though the divine mysteries whereby our Savior wrought our redemption have been consummated, yet are we still sinners: and where there is sin, there must be expiation.

The apostles, therefore, legislated for our weakness by instituting, at the very commencement of the Christian Church, that the solemnity of Easter should be preceded by a universal fast; and it was only natural that they should have made this period of penance to consist of forty days, seeing that our divine Master had consecrated that number by His own fast. St. Jerome, St. Leo the Great, St. Cyril of Alexandria, St. Isidore of Seville, and others of the holy fathers, assure us that Lent was instituted by the apostles, although, at the commencement, there was not any uniform way of observing it....

"The observance of Lent is the very badge of the Christian warfare. By it we prove ourselves not to be enemies of the cross of Christ. By it we avert the scourges of divine justice. By it we gain strength against the princes of darkness, for it shields us with heavenly help. Should mankind grow remiss in their observance of Lent, it would be a detriment to God's glory, a disgrace to the Catholic religion, and a danger to Christian souls. Neither can it be doubted that such negligence would become the source of misery to the world, of public calamity, and of private woe" [Encyclical Non ambigimus, Pope Benedict XIV]. More than two hundred years have elapsed since this solemn warning of the Vicar of Christ was given to the world; and during that time, the relaxation he inveighed against has gone on gradually increasing. How few Christians do we meet who are strict observers of Lent, even in its present mild form?

And must there not result from this ever-growing spirit of immortification, a general effeminacy of character, which will lead, at last, to frightful social disorders? The sad predictions of Pope Benedict XIV are but too truly verified. Those nations, among whose people the spirit and practice of penance are extinct, are heaping against themselves the wrath of God, and provoking his justice to destroy them by one or other of these scourges—civil discord, or conquest. In our own country there is an inconsistency, which must strike every thinking mind: the observance of the Lord's day, on the one side; the national inobservance of the days of penance and fasting, on the other... The word of God is unmistakable: unless we do penance, we shall perish (cf. Lk. 13:3). But if our ease-loving and sensual generation were to return, like the Ninevites, to the long neglected way of penance and expiation, who knows but that the arm of God, which is already raised to strike us, may give us blessing and not chastisement? — Commentary from The Liturgical Year by Dom Prosper Guéranger O.S.B.

March 1 — German Mass Choir

The combined Gottscheer Heimatchor/STV Bavaria choir will sing Michael Haydn's "Deutches Hochamt" ("German High Mass") at the 11:00am German Mass on March 1. During that time, he wrote over 360 compositions, including the "Deutches Hochamt" (1793). From their mutual time in Salzburg, Haydn was acquainted with Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, who held his work in high esteem. [paraphrased from Wikipedia, https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Michael_Haydn]

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES (CRS) RICE BOWL

Each Lent, Catholic families across the country unite to put their faith into action through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Through CRS Rice Bowl, families learn about how our sisters and brothers across the globe overcome hardships like hunger and malnutrition. CRS Rice Bowl is one way Catholics can enhance their Lenten fasting practice by giving up meals and donating the cost of those meals to Catholic Relief Services in order to help those who do not have enough to eat.

Pick up your family's CRS Rice Bowl today from the table in the back of the church, and begin engaging your family in the daily pillars of Lent: Prayer, Fasting and Almsgiving.
